Re: United States v. Martin McKernan
07 Cr. 674 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

I represent defendant Martin McKernan in connection with the above-referenced criminal case. Today, Mr. McKernan pleaded guilty in this case to a two-count Information before Magistrate Judge Michael Dolinger. On February 22, 2007 the defendant was arrested on a complaint and presented before Magistrate Judge Dohlinger. At a bail hearing on February 23, 2007, Mr. McKernan's bail package restricted his travel to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and the States of Connecticut and New Jersey.

Mr. McKernan would like to take a vacation with his wife and three young children in Massachusetts. Mr. McKernan would like to begin the trip on Wednesday, July 25th and return on Sunday, July 29th.

I respectfully request that your Honor extend Mr. McKernan's bail limits to Massachusetts. Assistant United States Attorney Harry Chernoff advised me that he does not oppose this request.

Finally, we do not yet have a sentencing date for Mr. McKernan. Since he is anxious to get this part of his life behind him as soon as possible, we respectfully request that his sentencing date be set as early as possible considering the time required for the Probation Department to prepare a Pre-Sentence Report.

Respectfully yours,
